DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12/9/03 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 9-36 and 45-54 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are indefinite because it is not clear what is required by the step of "employing". It is not clear whether or not both the lamp assembly and a heater assembly are used to heat the chamber parts.

For examination purposes the claims were interpreted as requiring heating of the chamber parts by both the lamp assembly and the heater assembly during the cleaning.

However, clarification and/or amendment are required.

Claims 12, 30, 48 and the depended claims are indefinite because it is not clear how can a method comprise a structural element (the liners).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 9-11 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hatano et al (US Patent No 5,709,757).

Hatano et al teach a method as claimed. See entire document, especially Fig. 2 and column 11-14.

The method comprises introducing gases as claimed in the chamber and heating the parts of the chamber with lamps and embedded heaters to clean the chamber.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

9. Claims 12-14 and 16-18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hatano et al in view any one of Shrotriya (5,843,239) and Tanaka et al (6,039,834).

Hatano et al teach the claimed method except for recitation that the chamber comprises liners.

However, liners are conventional parts of the chambers. See Shrotriya and Tanaka et al evidence.

It would have been obvious to an ordinary artisan at the time the invention was made to conduct the method of Hatano et al in chambers provided with liners with reasonable expectation of adequate results in order to have the chambers cleaned.

Art Unit: 1746

Moreover it is noted that the recited liners are not affecting the method in a manipulative sense. It has been held that to be entitled to weight in method claims, the recited structure limitations therein must affect the method in a manipulative sense, and not to amount to the mere claiming of a use of a particular structure. Ex parte Pfeiffer, 1962 C.D. 408 (1961).

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claims 27-36 and 45-54 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

11. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest heating the chamber parts by combination of lamp assembly and embedded heater assembly during a plasma cleaning of the chamber.
